Venice Man, 23, Killed in Accident

Charles Barney is Area's First Traffic Fatality; 12 Injured

A Venice man was killed and another was hospitalized with injuries resulting from a one-car accident at 1:15 a.m. New Year's Day on County road at the Merchant's Bridge overpass in Venice.

In addition, 11 other persons were injured as 24 traffic accidents occurred this week on Quad-City area streets and highways.

The year's first traffic fatality in the Quad-Cities was Charles Barney, 23, of 1220 Market street, who was dead upon arrival at St. Elizabeth Hospital where he was taken by ambulance with head injuries.

Police said he was a passenger in a car driven by Ronald Boyd, 21, of 1036 Douglas street, Venice, who suffered head, back and arm injuries.

Officers said Boyd was driving south on County road and apparently lost control on a rise in the roadway. The car rolled over several times and crashed into a concrete abutment at the railroad bridge overpass.

Venice volunteer firemen were summoned to help police extricate the two men from the totally wrecked auto.

Two Hurt in Crash

The drivers of two autos—Sister Mary Bernard of St. Mary's Convent, 1011 Alton avenue, Madison, and Mrs. Velma Williams, 17, of 1733 Rhodes street, Madison—were injured at 2:25 p.m. Monday when their cars collided in the intersection of Tenth street and Madison avenue.

Mrs. Williams was taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital where she was treated for pains in the neck and lower back. She was admitted for further treatment.

Madison police said Sister Bernard, a teacher at St. Mary's school, was injured in the accident and taken to the hospital. She was admitted to be treated for abrasions and bruises.

Sister Bernard's car was knocked into a delivery truck operated by William Jacobs, Waterloo, which was parked on Tenth street, and which was damaged in the left front.

According to police reports, Sister Bernard, eastbound on Tenth street, was crossing Madison avenue when the Williams car, headed north on Madison avenue, collided with her car.

Crash Injures 3

A Granite City motorist and two out-of-state truck drivers were admitted to St. Elizabeth Hospital at 2:35 p.m. Monday, following a collision between a private auto and a semi-trailer truck at the entrance to Skelly Truck Stop on Route 203, near the Interstate 70 cloverleaf, south of Madison.

State police report the collision involved vehicles driven by Donald Tewell, 22, of 2036B Cleveland blvd., who was traveling north on Route 203, and Edward Burdick, 50, of Dunedin, Fla., operator of a large semi-trailer truck, which was attempting to cross the highway from the truck stop and turn south.

A relief driver in the truck, Bobby Lee Prevatt, 35, of Lacoolee, Fla., was knocked unconscious in the accident, suffered a four-inch laceration behind the left ear and possible injuries to his spine, lungs and skull. He was to have undergone

HENRY GABRIEL
Park Commissioner

William Kozyak Resigns Post on GC Park Board

William Kozyak, president of the Granite City park board for the past six months, resigned his park district board post Monday night because of plans to move outside the park district later this year.

Kozyak, who was present at the recessed meeting of the park board and personally submitted his letter of resignation, said he was leaving the board "reluctantly" because of his high interest in park district activities.

The board voted to accept the resignation, adopted an ordinance declaring a vacancy in the board membership and unanimously appointed Henry Gabriel, 3656 Terrace lane, a Granite City architect, to fill the vacancy.

Under statutes amended in 1967, Gabriel will serve out Kozyak's full unexpired term of more than two years. Kozyak was elected to the park district board in 1965 to a six-year term which expires in April 1971. Previously, members appointed to vacancies served only until the next regular park district election when the board seat became subject to election for the balance of the term.

Architect for Rink

Gabriel is a member of the architectural firm of Gabriel & Dalgeroff with offices at 1509 Twenty-third street. Board members noted that Gabriel handled the architectural work for construction of the Wilson Park ice skating rink and its subsequent development and consequently has become well familiarized with park district activities. Gabriel was summoned to the meeting following approval of the appointment and announced his acceptance.

Barry Loman, vice-president of the park board, will serve as president until the board's regular reorganization next June. The board reorganization will follow an April 1 park district election in which one board member is to be elected to succeed Paul Schuler. Schuler has announced he will not seek re-election in the park election.

In his letter to the board Kozyak said that he has acquired

Hospital Wing Tops Building For 1968

$10,731,626 Totals for New Construction in GC; Apartments Lead

The new wing and remodeling work at St. Elizabeth Hospital sent construction values in Granite City during 1968 to a booming $10,731,626 listed in a total of 438 building permits.

The permit for the hospital, issued last week, showed the total cost at $7,619,024, leaving $3,112,602 for other purposes.

It was the second highest total recorded during this decade, being behind the record $13,228,529 mark set in 1965 when Granite City Steel Co. expansion led the way. Totals for 1967 were 460 permits at $3,045,733.

In addition, 53 permits to raze structures were issued last year at a total cost of $21,991, compared to 34 and $15,083 in 1967.

The proposal for the hospital includes five stories and two penthouses, 560 new rooms and 102 rooms in the remodeled portion. The wing will be 84 feet, 8 inches wide, 266 feet, 9 inches long and 71 feet, 6 inches high. The contractor is the S. M. Wilson Co. of Granite City and the architect is Joseph D. Standish of East St. Louis.

New Apartments

Construction of new apartment buildings and individual homes continued to lead the way during the year as 58 permits showed values of $1,758,500, while commercial-industrial activity followed with 67 permits at $934,527.

Other activity showed 41 additions to homes, $65,922; 70 for garages and carports, $75,634; 186 for remodeling and repairs, $172,473; and 15 for other miscellaneous purposes, $105,550.

Among larger projects started during the year included the Granite City Village apartments on Village lane at $616,000, the new Maryville road apartments at $132,000 and the Maryland Manor apartment building at $96,000.

Industrial-Commercial

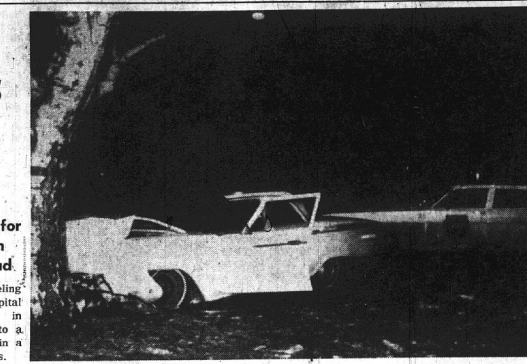

Industrial and commercial projects included three new buildings at American Steel Foundries at a total of $276,785, the service shopping center on Pontoon road at $80,000, a sky slide at $35,000, Lum's restaurant at $30,000 and the Bellemore service station at $30,000.

The top month of the year was December, though only nine permits were issued, at $7,643,924, in addition to four others to raze structures at a cost of $2050.

Two months failed to reach the $100,000 mark. In May, 36 permits listed values of $82,725,

FIRST ACCIDENT OF 1969 for the Quad-Cities ended in Wilson Park where an auto crashed into a tree 150 feet inside the park entrance at 27th street and Delmar avenue shortly after 1 a.m. New Year's Day. The driver, who jumped out and fled in the darkness, was being chased by police from 18th and Madison avenue where the auto had hit a utility pole.

BILL C. CURTIS

Bill Curtis Joins GC Police Dept.

Bill C. Curtis joined the Granite City police department last night, working the 9 p.m. to 5 a.m. shift.

Curtis, 28, who lives at 2333 Delta avenue with his wife and three children, was selected by the Board of Fire and Police Commissioners from about 12 applicants.

His appointment fills the vacancy created last month when Patrolman Alan LeMaster resigned to take a job as a truck driver.

Patrolman Curtis, a native of Campbell, Mo., who has resided here for five years, had been a bus driver for Bi-State Transit Co. for four years.

Chief Ronald Veizer said the appointment puts the department at its authorized strength of 41 men.

New Year's Eve in Quad-Cities

Auto Hits Pole, Then Tree In First Crashes of '69

Police are searching for the driver of an auto involved in the first accidents of the New Year.

The car traveling north on Madison avenue, first hit a utility pole at 18th street at 1:10 a.m. New Year's Day, spun around and went south, turning onto 17th street and going west to Cleveland blvd., then heading north, went into Wilson Park where it struck a large tree beyond the flagpole at the Delmar avenue entrance.

Police said the driver jumped out of the car and fled into the darkness, making good his escape.

The car ownership was learned through license plates issued to Charles Burns, 1419 Fifth street, Madison, who said he had loaned it to his brother-in-law, Randall Scrum, 1619 Second street. Scrum told officers he had parked the auto in front of his home with the engine running, and the car had been stolen.

In the first mishap at 1:10 p.m., the car knocked loose a large wooden utility pole at 18th and Madison avenue. A hubcap was found at the scene.

Police spotted the car and gave chase over 17th street and north on Cleveland blvd. The driver ran four stop signs and a traffic signal and traveled in the wrong direction on southbound Cleveland blvd.

At 27th street, the car jumped the curb, entering Wilson Park and making a wide turn to the right, damaging shrubbery and small trees, crossing the entrance walkway at Delmar avenue north of the flagpole before hitting a large tree.

Inside the car police found a white fur coat and an empty purse. Only one occupant was seen in the two-door sedan.

Church Watch Parties

Most Quad-Cityans observed New Year's Eve quietly, attending watch parties at churches and private homes.

Local night spots were given extra hours and reported "better than average" business.

Police at Madison and Venice said the evening was quiet other than for two holdups in Madison at 6:55 and 10:30 p.m. New Year's Eve and a fatal traffic accident at 1:15 a.m. to start the New Year in Venice.

At the Granite City police station, the log showed few entries

Mrs. Robert (Janeece) Schmidt served as chairman of the Jayceettes' annual "first baby" gift project.

Bandit Pair Robs Bakery, Tavern New Year's Eve

Clerk Struck in $85 Bakery Holdup; $750 Taken from Bar Patron

An armed bandit pair struck twice in 3½ hours in Madison on New Year's Eve, obtaining $85 in currency and coins from the cash register at Busy Bee Bakery, 806 Madison avenue, and taking $750 from a customer at Ermadean's tavern, 108 State street.

In the stickup at the bakery at 6:55 p.m., one of the bandits hit a clerk, Mrs. Joyce Monroe, 30, of 3406 Kirkpatrick Homes, on the left shoulder with his gun when she screamed. He warned her to "shut up."

The bandit pair entered the tavern at 10:30 p.m. and took the wallet of a customer, Paul Frye, 30, of Shelbyville, Ill., but then ran out as four persons entered. Six other patrons in the tavern were not robbed.

The bakery clerk, Mrs. Monroe, told police she saw one man enter the shop and walk over to a self-service refrigerator, picking out a quart of orange drink. He walked to the counter and asked for a cheese cake, and Mrs. Monroe said she was wrapping the cake when the man displayed a snub-nose revolver, ordering her "Give me the money."

Empties Cash Register

It was then that Mrs. Monroe screamed and the robber struck her with his gun. She handed him the currency from the cash register, and he asked for the change. She put the coins in a white paper sack, marked with "Season's Greetings."

The bandit ordered Mrs. Monroe and another clerk, Mrs. Agnes Freeman to lie down on the floor. It was then the women noticed a second man with a gun standing by the door. The bandit pair fled in a station wagon, which was described as having "fake wood" on the side.

The "customer" bandit was described as a Negro wearing a dark overcoat, and having a goatee. The other also was wearing a dark overcoat.

Wine Purchase Pretext

Tavern owner Mrs. Ermadean Deloney, told police two men entered the tavern and asked for two bottles of wine, putting a dollar bill on the bar. As she went to get the wine, both men pulled out guns and announced the hold-up.

One bandit, described as a six-footer with a .38 blue steel pistol, ordered Frye to hand over his wallet and a white gold wrist watch. The wallet contained three $100 bills, three $50 bills and $300 in smaller bills, Frye told police. He gave no reason for carrying the large amount of money.

After taking the wallet, the pair noticed other patrons entering and fled through the door, pushing the new arrivals inside. In the hasty departure, the taller bandit left a pair of leather gloves on the bar. His companion was armed with a .25 caliber automatic pistol, police were told. The men ran south to Market street and disappeared to the east. Witnesses said they saw a white over brown, 1959 station wagon in the vicinity of the tavern.

Other patrons were Ethen Woodward, 24, of 2636 North street; Jesse Laws, 44, of 2525 North street; Ernie Cobb, 20, of 2224 Edna street; Leopard Adams, 20, home on leave from the Army; Beverly Adams of 23 Garesche Homes, and Rita Hutchinson of 72 Garesche Homes.

First Fire of Year Delivered to Station

The first fire of the New Year was delivered to the main fire station at 5:30 a.m. yesterday and firemen estimated the loss at $1000 to the aluminum trailer loaded with $5700 worth of tangerines.

Firemen said George Buchanan of Weatherford, Tex., drove his tractor-trailer truck onto the station parking lot, and the firefighters had to peel the trailer top to get to the blaze, which had been started by a butane heater that was inside the trailer to keep the tangerines from freezing. No estimate was made of the damage to the tangerines.

Trucker Buchanan said he had arrived in St. Louis too late on Tuesday to have the tangerines unloaded and had spent the night at the Truck Stop along U.S. 203 at the Interstate 70 interchange. He discovered the fire upon arising New Year's Day and droved the rig to the Granite City fire station at 23rd street and Madison avenue.

After the blaze was extinguished, Buchanan returned to the Truck Stop.

State Highway Program Light In Quad-Cities

Illinois' new 1969 highway building program virtually bypasses the Quad-City area in new construction work and provides only $55,000 for right-of-way acquisition in two major roadway projects, a detailed listing of the state's highway plans revealed today.

Provisions for right-of-way acquisition in the Quad-City area include $45,000 for Federal Aid Route 151 (The Great River Road) from Niedringhaus avenue in Granite City to Broadway in Venice, and $10,000 for right-of-way along Route 203 (Nameoki road) for paving from Interstate 270 to Pontoon road in Granite City.

While the highway department set up a total of $38,559,000 in work for District 8, which includes Madison county, $25,278,000 of the amount will go for Interstate work and the balance of $13,271,000 will apply to non-interstate projects.

Although the new work is programmed for the 1969 year, little of the Interstate work is expected to be undertaken until a freeze on federal funds is lifted. The freeze was applied last year by the federal government which is protesting higher construction costs and

Area Traffic Fatalities Up 30% in 1968

The number of traffic accidents in the Quad-City area during 1968 jumped 8% over the total of 1967, but the number of fatalities—persons who were killed or died as the result of traffic mishaps—increased by 30%, a study of the year's traffic statistics revealed today.

There were 2343 traffic accidens in the Quad-Cities during 1968, involving 1379 injuries and 35 fatalities. During the 1967 year there were 2153 accidents with 1366 persons injured and 27 persons killed or fatally injured.

Statistics show that while the number of 1968 accidents was an increase 190 over the 1967 figure of 2153, the ratio of injury cases remained almost static, with only 13 more persons injured in the 1968 mishaps than there were in the smaller number of 1967 crashes.

The injury ratio remained almost unchanged for all 12 months of the year despite the fact that 128 persons were injured in 231 accidents occurring during December, the final 1968 month for which accident statistics were compiled. A total of 111 persons was injured in 249 accidents in December 1967.

December Fatalities Cut

Two persons died in area traffic accidents during December, two less than in December 1967.

The Quad-Cities' high total of traffic fatalities began building up early in the year with three persons killed in February, five in March and three again in April, a total of 11 over the three-month period. The toll in fatalities hit its peak in June, with nine traffic deaths. There were three fatalities again in November, and two each in May, July, August, October and December.

Not a single month passed without at least one traffic death. One person was killed in January, and one in September.

A substantial increase in both the number of accidents and injuries occurred during the first two months of the year. In January there were 253 accidents compared to 170 during January 1967, with 131 injuries in 1968 compared to 89 in 1967. A total of 189 accidents with 98 injury cases was reported for February, compared to 143 accidents and only 57 injuries during February of the previous year.

Biggest Injury Toll

Largest number of injury cases in any single month of the year was reported during August when 143 persons were hurt in 194 accidents, with June running a close second. During that month 142 persons were injured in 202 accidents.

Smallest number of accidents occurring in any month of the past year was 155 reported during April, although there were 106 injuries and three fatalities during the month.

The year's statistical accident record, showing the number of accidents, the number of persons injured and the number of fatalities, in that order:

January—253-131-1; February — 169-98-3; March — 176-81-5; April — 155-106-3; May — 217-126-2; June — 202-142-9; July — 162-94-2; August — 194-143-2; September — 195-127-1; October — 167-64-2; November — 227-139-3; December — 231-128-2.

Warming Bulb Sets Fire to Auto Engine

A fire caused by a broken light bulb and a blanket placed over the engine of a 1951 auto resulted in $10 damage to the car owned by Charles Smith, 2911 Harding blvd., about 9:10 p.m. Tuesday.

Firemen were at the scene about 20 minutes. They said the light bulb being used to keep the engine warm had broken, and the resulting short circuit set fire to the blanket and to the gasoline in the carburetor. The car was parked at the Smith home.

Home Sales Under Interest Subsidy Plan OK'd by FHA

Dale Construction Co., developer of Quiet Valley Subdivision at Pontoon Beach, has received federal authorization for the sale of 20 to 25 standard-built homes under terms of the Housing Bill of 1968 permitting the government to subsidize a big part of the interest cost to certain qualified buyers, it was announced today.

A. R. Cooper, president of the construction firm, said the national program is designed to make home ownership available to many persons who want to buy a home but are unable to do so because of today's higher interest cost. For those who qualify, the plan will mean the saving of many thousands of dollars over the amortization period of their home mortgage.

Cooper said that so far as he knows his firm is the only Quad-City area developer to apply for participation in the program thus far. Present federal funding of the plan expires at the end of the government fiscal year next July 1 so that all present authorizations must be completed by that time, Cooper explained. He said his firm is in position to begin immediate sale of three-bedroom fully modernized homes under terms of the plan, which is administered by the Federal Housing Administration.

Top Price $17,500

Under the plan, an authorized builder or developer may sell a specified number of residences (determined by FHA) which he has built, is building or plans to build for a maximum price also determined by FHA. In the case of Dale Construction Co. the maximum sale price is fixed at $17,500, Cooper said.

Eligible for home loans, which are guaranteed by FHA, are working residents of the area whose income and circumstances indicate a need for assistance in purchasing a home. Persons with incomes up to $7200 per year are eligible to buy homes under the plan, Cooper said.

Monthly payments by the purchaser are based on a formula which credits the buyer with $300 per child against his annual income and the balance of his income divided into monthly income. His payment amounts to 20% of the monthly income.

Cooper cited a hypothetical case of a man making $6000 per year with two children. A total of $600—$300 each for the two children — would be deducted from his total salary of $6000, leaving $5400. The $5400 divided into 12 months would be $450 per, and 20% of this amount would be $90 which would be the amount of his monthly payment.

FHA Supplements Interest

The home mortgage would be negotiated by a bank or other financing agency, the same as in any other real estate transaction, but in this case the buyer's monthly check to the mortgage holder would be supplemented by a check from FHA to make up the difference between the $90 and what the payment would have been in a normal transaction.

Cooper said that the sale of a $17,500 home under normal circumstances would result in a payment of about $140 a month, so that a buyer under the new program will save about $50 a month. Loans are based on 30-year duration. Homes sold under the plan must meet FHA specifications.

The subsidy payment made by FHA to the mortgage holder is in payment of interest on the mortgage and therefore has the effect of reducing FHA's current interest rate of 5¾% to about 1% for buyers who qualify under the plan.

Voter Registration For GC Primary Starts Tomorrow

A series of special voter registration periods in preparation for the Feb. 11 primary election in Granite City and the state senator primary in March will be initiated tomorrow in Granite City and Pontoon Beach, Miss Eulalia Hotz, Madison county clerk announced today.

Deputy registrars will accept new registrations or assist those who need to correct their current voting records, such as change of name or address, Miss Hotz said.

She pointed out that college students home for the holidays who will attain their 21st birthday within the next five months, also are being encouraged to register in advance at this time.

Miss Hotz explained the official registration card will be held at the county clerk"s office until the 21st birthday is reached.

In order to vote in the Feb. 11 primary, Granite Cityans must be registered by Monday, Jan. 13, the county official said.

Deputy registrars now accepting registrations are Mrs. Olive Sigite, 2229 Bryan avenue, evenings by appointment, 877-2558; Mrs. Rose Turner, 2141 Waterman avenue, 6 to 8 p.m., 931-4129; and Mrs. Elvira Thurber, 1932 State street, weekdays, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., Saturdays, 9 a.m. to noon, 876-0535.

Other local registration periods are scheduled Friday, Jan. 3—American National Bank, 4 to 7 p.m. and Fitters Thrift Market, 4055 Pontoon road, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Saturday, Jan. 4 — National Food Store, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.; and Maryland Bi Rite, 2205 Pontoon road, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Miss Hotz noted that most local residents are already registered due to the intense registration period conducted prior to the November general elections. However, she added, many may have moved and changed their address since that time.

She explained that persons wishing to record a change of address may complete the reverse side of their pink voter identification card and mail it to the county clerk's office at courthouse, Edwardsville. Any changes to be made by mail also must be completed before the Jan. 13 deadline, Miss Hotz advised.

Three Suspects In Armed Robbery Held in Madison

Three East St. Louis men, one of whom was free on bond in an East St. Louis murder case, were arrested by Madison police early today as suspects in the armed robbery of a Clark service station in Alton at 10:50 p.m. yesterday.

Madison police also recovered a 1963 model auto that had been stolen in East St. Louis and said they found in the rear of the car a radio identified as loot taken in the Alton armed robbery. The car was identified as the one used in the Alton robbery, officers said.

The arrests climaxed a curious chain of events that began when an off-duty East St. Louis policeman, Alonzo Perrin, was in Garrett's tavern, West Second and Jackson streets, shortly after 1 a.m. today, and saw a man whom he recognized as one sought by East St. Louis police for many weeks.

Perrin, Madison authorities related, notified Louis Byrd, a special Madison police officer stationed at Garrett's tavern, who in turn called Madison police and asked for assistance in making the arrest. Venice police also responded to the call. Officers covered both the front and rear doors of the tavern until Perrin located the man he sought and identified him.

Left Hospital

Taken to Madison police headquarters, the man was booked as Michael Feilding, 20, East St. Louis. Perrin said Feilding has been sought since he walked out of an East St. Louis hospital some weeks ago when he was under treatment for a bullet wound received in an East St. Louis robbery.

While Feilding was being booked, Madison officers told Perrin of the Alton robbery. Perrin replied that he had seen two men fitting descriptions of two of the robbers and believed they were with Feilding at Garrett's tavern.

At the same time, Special Officer Byrd reported that a white 1963 auto bearing the license numbers of the car used in the Alton robbery was parked near Garrett's tavern.

Madison and Venice officers immediately returned to the tavern. As they approached, a 1968 model auto was leaving the area. Perrin recognized two of its occupants as the men he had seen. Police stopped the car, searched all of its occupants at gunpoint and took the men to headquarters. Police said they found a .32 caliber revolver under the seat on the right side of the car.

Driver Released

Police said the driver of the car was released after he established that he had been asked to give the other men a ride to East St. Louis and was not involved with them earlier in the night.

Booked as suspects in the Alton robbery were Randy Keys, 19, and Gerald Meredith, 25, both of East St. Louis. Officers said Keys has been at liberty on bond in a murder case.

Madison authorities also impounded the white 1963 model auto in which they found the radio. They said it was stolen from Galvin Owens jr. of East St. Louis, who was severely beaten by the men who took the car.

Police said this morning they expect to turn the men over to Alton authorities. East St. Louis police also have placed a hold order against them for assault and car theft.

Traffic Charge

Eugene Welle of Collinsville was issued an arrest ticket at 1:10 a.m. New Year's Day on a charge of disobeying a traffic signal light at 20th street and Madison avenue.

State Chamber Endorses Income Tax Conditionally

As a last resort in solving what appears to be an impending fiscal crisis in Illinois, the Illinois State Chamber of Commerce announced this week it "reluctantly" will support a flat-rate state income tax, uniformly applied to both corporations and individuals.

President William J. Crowley said support of such a tax would be contingent on the General Assembly simultaneously approving and submitting to the state's voters an amendment to the Revenue Article of the State Constitution which would authorize elimination of inequitable provisions in the present tax structure and limit the kind and magnitude of any permissible income tax.

He said the State Chamber commends and supports Governor-elect Richard Ogilvie in seeking increased governmental efficiency and expenditure control, as well as his efforts to secure additional federal funds with fewer restrictions.

"However, after all efforts to control spending and increase efficiency have been exhausted, and after maximum utilization of all state and federal revenue sources, it appears there still may be a need for substantial amounts of additional revenue," Crowley added.

Limitations stipulated by Crowley were that the tax should:

1. Be at the lowest possible rate to produce revenue sufficient only to meet minimum necessary revenue requirements as determined after exhaustive executive and legislative review.

2. Apply at the same rate to corporations and individuals.

3. Be levied at a base similar to the federal income tax for convenience and economy in administration.

"Care should be taken to avoid discriminatory provisions and to minimize the possibility of the tax being declared invalid on constitutional grounds," Crowley said.

"Illinois' present tax structure is not equitable and any permanent modification should seek to increase its fairness, but our current state constitution limits the power to remove many inequities. For this reason, any attempt to offset personal or real estate taxes against an income tax is futile until a new Revenue Article is adopted.

"Since an income tax would be a last-resort tax and the revenue it would produce might not become available immediately because of litigation, there should be no reduction in our elimination of present revenue sources until revenue from new sources is actually available."

Recognizing that a constitutional convention will meet later this year, Crowley said that to submit a separate Revenue Article amendment to the electorate while a convention is in progress is neither impracticable nor inconsistent because:

1. The convention will deal with a multiplicity of highly controversial subjects. If a separate Revenue Article receives popular approval, the convention can concentrate on other complex subjects.

2. A Revenue Article developed by the legislature could serve as a starting point for the convention's deliberations and could be withdrawn if an equally acceptable or improved proposal were developed by the convention. A duplicated approach also would generate additional public interest in constitutional revenue reform.

The State Chamber's board of directors approved the proposal for financing Illinois government on recommendation of the State and Local Taxation Committee of the 20,000 member statewide business organization.

Committee Chairman John E. Hogan Jr. said the committee conducted a year-long intensified study of Illinois' fiscal problems.

State Tests Well Water For Purity at No Charge

Several rural and suburban residents in Madison county follow the recommended practice of getting well water used for drinking purposes tested for purity, and the Illinois Department of Public Health offers such testing service free, it was pointed out today by Warren W. Bundy, Madison county extension adviser.

The state department, he said, has a regional laboratory in East St. Louis to serve residents of this area.

To get well water tested, Bundy said, write to Regional Laboratory, Illinois Department of Public Health, 414 Missouri Avenue, East St. Louis. Ask for a container and instructions for collecting a sample of well water for testing.

The two tests made routinely are for nitrate content and for coliform bacteria. A low nitrate test and the absence of coliform bacteria are desirable. Coliform bacteria are common in the intestinal tract of warm-blooded animals. The presence of such bacteria indicates pollution usually by contaminated surface water getting into the well.

Additional tests will be made free for hardness if such tests are specifically requested. Those tests may indicate that minerals, such as iron, are a potential problem.

About 95% of the useful water in Illinois is underground. There still is much to be learned about the supply and quality of underground water. More automatic washers and dishwashers, bigger livestock operations and increasing industrial and urban use of water will put even more pressure on our agricultural water supply," the extension adviser noted.

"Information about water supply and quality may be obtained by writing to the Illinois Geological Survey or to the State Water Survey, both at Urbana, Ill. Give your specific geographical location and details about your water problem when writing for information."

Seedling Trees for Farms

Seedling trees for planting on rural land are available from state of Illinois nurseries at prices of $12 to $18 per thousand, depending upon the species. Several kinds of evergreen and hardwood trees as well as wildlife packets are offered.

These trees may not be used for ornamental, shade tree or landscape purposes nor resold with roots attached. They may be used for growing forest products, for establishing new forests or shelterbelts or improving existing forests, game food and cover, control of soil erosion, Christmas trees and greens, posts, pulpwood, ties, poles, logs, and other products.

Orders for trees should be submitted now to reserve the trees you want for delivery next spring. Price lists and order blanks are available at the county extension office in Edwardsville.

Private graveside services were held Tuesday at Calvary Cemetery, Edwardsville township, for Clare Lynette McConnell, infant daughter of Gary and Rita McConnell of 2657 East 28th street. The baby was stillborn at St. Elizabeth Hospital on Monday.

Other survivors include the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. McConnell and Mr. and Mrs. James Moore all of Granite City.

Arrangements are given elsewhere in this issue.

A retired machine operator for Chicago Screw Co., he was a veteran of world war I and a member of American Legion 365. He is survived by three sons and one daughter.

Services Held Today For Edw. Paterson, 62

Funeral services were held at 9 a.m. today at St. Joseph's Roman Catholic Church for Edward T. Paterson, 62, of Chicago, who died Sunday at his home after a one-month illness.

A former local resident, he had lived in Chicago for the past ten years.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Nell (Bess) Paterson; one son, Travers Paterson; a sister, Miss Catherine Paterson, all of Chicago; one brother, William Paterson of Chester, Pa., and several nephews in this area.

County Medical Society Holds Officer Election

Dr. Luis Ventura of Edwardsville was elected president of the Madison County Medical Society for 1969, it was announced this week by the retiring president, Dr. Harry Mitleman.

Other officers elected by the society were Dr. Richard Yoder of Alton, president-elect; Dr. Henry Malench of Edwardsville, treasurer; Dr. Leo R. Green of Alton, state delegate, and Dr. James Adams of Troy, alternate delegate.

UF Donations Still Acceptable; Drive at 93.3%

"The United Fund drive may be over, but it is not shut off," UF General Thomas R. Remington said this week. "We need and will gladly accept any and all contributions," he added.

Additional subscriptions still are being audited at the United Fund office, 2021 Edison avenue, where delayed contributions will be recorded at any time, Remington explained.

Since the final report meeting Nov. 27, the Utilities Section of the Industrial Employees Division, headed by Roger Ward, has reported additional contributions, the campaign chairman announced, which resulted in the section achieving 106.9%, or $6418 of its $6000 goal and a "Li'l Angel" award.

A. P. Steinhauser, president of the Tri-Cities United Fund board of directors, recently appointed C. E. Townsend, Press-Record editor-publisher, as chairman of a nominating committee to secure new UF board members and a slate of officers.

Current members will elect replacements to the board at the annual UF membership meeting Friday, Feb. 14, with the directors then selecting officers and transacting other business. All United Fund contributors are invited to attend the annual meeting, Steinhauser said.

Latest tabulations recorded at the UF office, show contributions amounting to $361,503, or 93.3% of the $387,104 campaign goal.

Should the current support level continue and the overall goal not be achieved, the UF Admissions and Distributions Committee will be forced to re-evaluate and re-allocate appropriations to participating agencies based on available funds, Remington said.

Sports Spotlight on Warrior-Trojan Cage Contest at GCHS

Perhaps more exciting than watching a bowl game or a final in a strong basketball tournament is the annual basketball meeting of the Granite City high school Fighting Warriors and the Madison Trojans.

The two teams will collide Saturday at the GCHS memorial gym starting at 8 p.m.

The competition has always been tough—and unpredictable.

Take the last two years for example. The Trojans have been undefeated going into the 32 minutes of GCHS-Madison play, but have come out of each game with a loss.

Warriors Favored

This year, Granite City is favored, but could encounter a similar jinx.

When the two quintets started their competition many years ago, they met twice a year until the 1961-62 season, when it was decided to hold only one cage contest a season between the two clubs.

Granite City has done well, but during one span powerful Madison teams won nine straight games from Granite City.

Williams, Freeman Recalled

The Trojan winning streak ended in the 1958-59 season when the Warriors won, 61-48. The following year, Bob Price and Rich Williams, the later now basketball coach at Coolidge junior high school, paced the Warriors to a hairline victory of 70-68 and then led the way to an 89-64 romp the second time the teams met that season.

The Trojans in retaliation bounced back the next year, behind the deadeye shooting of former Illinois University cage star Don Freeman to take the next two games.

The Warriors, who lack height for rebounding, will include in their lineup Gary Simpson, 6'1" guard; John VanBuskirk, 6'1" guard; Dave Melzer, 6'1" forward; and Jeff Boyles, 6'3" forward.

MHS After Fifth Win

For the Trojans, it is expected that Dave Hutchison (5'9") and Jim Scott (5'9") will play the guard positions; MHS front liners will be Oscar Hagler (6'1"), John Harper (6'3") and Alonzo Watts (6').

For the season thus far, the Warriors have a record of 7-3 in comparison with the Trojans' 4-4.

For GCHS, Simpson, VanBuskirq and Melzer saw action in last year's game, won by the Warriors. The Trojans have Scott back from the 1967-68 game.

Mathews Defeated in Title Game of Tourney

Mathews Chevrolet lost to Sinovic 90-68 in the championship game of the East St. Louis YMCA holiday basketball tournament Monday evening at the Signal Hill grade school gym.

The Sinovics are the East St. Louis Commercial League champions and are tied with Mathews for third place in the St. Louis Wohl Senior Men's League.

Bob Patrick, Mathews team manager, said, "The flu hurt our chances to win the tournament, as several players were unable to play. Frank Knight and Elmer Wortham are examples; Knight scored three points and Wortham left the game at halftime with only five points. Both have been 20-point scorers.

"In addition, George Moore missed the entire tournament. He is our 6'7" center."

John Campbell led the team in scoring with 18 points, followed by Neil Podoba 17, Carl Wortham 14, Rich Patrick nine and Bob Patrick, two.

Earlier in the eight-team tourney, Mathews eliminated Mobil Oil 75-53 and East St. Louis YMCA 91-80.

Save your money.

It's that time of the year... the newspapers are crowded with words like Stupendous! Colossal! Tremendous! Unbelievable! Save Up To 70%! Never Again! It's all very confusing and kind of hard to know what to believe!

Well, we're having a sale too... but we'd like to earn your respect as well as your business! First of all, you spend entirely too much money on furniture to make a mistake! You're not going to buy some odd-ball, left-over sofa just because it's on sale... right?

OK, so instead of reducing just a handful of items... we've reduced every display sample we own! We simply put one of 3 tags on every piece of furniture in our stores... one tag reads 10% Off, one tag reads 20% Off... and one tag reads 30% Off! That way if you don't like one sofa that's on Sale... maybe you'll like the one next to it... or maybe the one across the aisle! With a whole store to choose from, you should be able to find something you'd like to live with for years... and save money, too! Nothing wrong with that, is there?

Oh, and if your budget is sagging a bit, just "Charge It" and work out just about any credit plan that suits you best!

Scott AF Base to Aid Air Force Retirees

Beginning Saturday, Scott Air Force Base will initiate a "Courtesy Service Day for Air Force Retirees," in which the first Saturday of each month will be used to conduct the business of Air Force retired personnel. The program was initiated for the convenience of USAF retirees who are not able to travel to Scott on weekdays to conduct business.

Each first Saturday of the month, a representative of the base Personal Affairs office will be on duty in the Pass and ID Section of the Security Police Squadron (Bldg. 2010, Area A) from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. Indentification card applications will be verified and cards issued "on-the-spot" provided retirees have the proper supporting documents with them.

Air Force retirees are encouraged to call the Scott Personal Affairs office should there be any question as to what supporting documents are necessary. Weekdays, calls should be made to AL 6-3117 or AL 6-4204, while on Courtesy Service Day only, inquiries will be answered by calling AL 6-4881.

Triangle Review Honors Sternberg

Gene H. Sternberg, local general contractor and Optimist International President, was featured in the current issue of the Triangle Review, a magazine of engineers, architects and scientists.

He was installed last June as president of nearly 100,000 members of Optimist International at its 50th convention in Louisville, Ky. Sternberg and his wife, Ruth, have been visiting many of the Optimist clubs in the 50 states and will continue the tours until late April, to include speaking engagements in Mexico, Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands and Canadian provinces.

An active civic leader in the community, he is a member of the executive board of Cahokia Mound Council, Boy Scouts of America, and for his outstanding contributions to the Boy Scout movement, he has earned the Silver Beaver and Silver Antelope awards.

His work with other local organizations include the Tri-Cities Chamber of Commerce, the YMCA board of directors, the Coordinated Youth Services, the Cancer Crusade, Salvation Army, Red Cross and United Fund.

As a result of these accomplishments, Sternberg was honored in June at a banquet attended by his fellow citizens, representing service groups and the city government.

Crime Study Center At SIU Gets $105,092

Receipt of the remaining $105,092 of a total $209,800 grant from the U. S. Department of Justice was a highlight of 1968 activities of Southern Illinois University's Center for the Study of Crime, Delinquency and Corrections at Carbondale.

The total grant, largest ever awarded an educational institution by the Justice Department, was for continuing the center's series of institutes for correctional staff training officers of penal institutions throughout the United States. It brought the total of Justice Department grants for this purpose to $400,000 within the past two years.

Since the training program's inception early in 1967, the center has conducted five of the eight-week institutes which have provided training for 198 correctional staff training officers from 35 states.

Goal of the institutes, according to Crime Center director Charles V. Matthews, is to help states develop increasingly effective tools and programs for their penal institution personnel involved in the rehabilitation of offenders.

Centennial Celebration At SIU Opens March 9

Southern Illinois University at Carbondale will launch its centennial celebration March 9 with a charter convocation in the SIU arena featuring David Dodds Henry, president of the University of Illinois, as guest speaker.

The event, at 2:30 p.m., will kick off what may be the most ambitious centennial event ever staged in the state. It will run nearly five and one-half years, winding up on July 2, 1924.

The two dates reflect the faltering start of a school that has become Illinois' second largest and the 20th in size in the U. S.

While the state legislature approved a charter for Southern Illinois' first state-supported institution of higher learning in 1869, it wasn't until July 2, 1874, that the first class was held. Building delays, financial miscalculations and an area-wide argument over which town would get the new "Normal" school were among some of the reasons for the delay.

Charles Tenney, SIU vice-president for planning and review, has declared that the five-year birthday party will concentrate on the future and the university's contributions to it, rather than on the historic past. He says one of the contributions of the centennial is that it can "provide a basis for planning the future, with emphasis on the creative role that a great university, dedicated to the discovery and dissemination of knowledge, can play in the reconstruction of the world."

DeMolays Begin Celebration of 50th Anniversary

The Granite City chapter, Order of DeMolay, began its observance of the 50th anniversary of its international organization yesterday.

The first local activity will be held Jan. 11 when the chapter will take a bus load of candidates, DeMolays and advisors to a state-wide class in Bloomington, sponsored by the Scottish Rite Bodies of Illinois.

The initiatory and DeMolay degrees will be conferred in the Scottish Rite cathedral upon candidates throughout the state as the highlight of the rite's DeMolay day.

George A. Newberry, sovereign grand commander of the supreme council, Ancient Accepted Scottish Rite for the northern U. S. jurisdiction, will attend.

DeMolay started in 1919 with nine high school boys and a young adult, Frank S. Land. It now reaches around the world and numbers three million.

DeMolays give time and efforts to helping other people. They plan and carry out projects to raise money for charitable projects and to underwrite their own program of all-around youth development.

They are active in learning about their government and have a direct part in governing their own chapter and jurisdictional activities. They experience first hand the responsibilities of planning and executing programs for their fellow members.

The international supreme council will hold its annual session March 15-19 in Kansas City, Mo., where the Frank S. Land memorial fountain will be dedicated. An international conference is set July 1-4 in Kansas City, with more than 3000 DeMolays and advisors expected to attend.

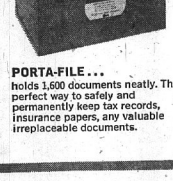

On July 5 and 6, three chartered planes will take nearly 500 DeMolays, advisors and their families on a special pilgrimage to Europe. The group will dedicate a special plaque in Paris at the deathsite of the movement's namesake, Jacques DeMolay.

SIU, SIU-SW to Sponsor Study Tour of Europe

The Southern Illinois University Extension Services will sponsor again a travel and study tour of Europe, it was announced today at the Southwestern campus.

Scheduled for this summer, SIU students and faculty members are eligible to go. Departure date is June 20 and the flight will return Aug. 27. A jet airliner has been chartered for the tour.

Class offerings from both the Southwestern and Carbondale campuses are included in the plan. Reservations may be made for 171 persons, with space reserved on a first-come first-served basis. Applications are being accepted now, along with a first installment payment of $100 at the SIU Extension Division Office, Edwardsville.

Credit courses will be taught in Italy, England, Germany, France, Scandinavia, and the Soviet Union. Class schedules can be secured by calling the Extension Division at 692-2660. Students who are from other universities may also take advantage of the tour, providing they sign up for at least six quarter hours of SIU classes.

In most cases students will travel and study by class. A student may, however, select to take advantage of the group transportation and travel independently in Europe; he is responsible for making his own travel arrangements overseas.

Package deals, which may include transportation, room and board, range from $800-$1500 according to the study program selected.

Payments for the trip may be made in three installments, the first due before Feb. 10, 1969. Subsequent payments must be made before March 10 and April 2. Payments may be refunded if requested before April 2.

GCHS Student Council Delivers 56 Gift Boxes

Fifty-six baskets, each containing a large ham and a variety of canned goods, were delivered during the holidays to local families by members of the Granite City high school student Council, which spearheaded a pre-Christmas drive to secure the items, James Jeffries, council faculty adviser said today.

Under the leadership of Edmund Bartosiak, council president, the local high school students took various canned goods to their home rooms, and the items were assembled into gift boxes on the auditorium stage.

Each box also contained a ham, purchased with small monetary donations contributed by the students and subsidized with funds from the council treasury.

Families receiving the gift boxes were selected from a list of names submitted by principals of various Granite City schools and coordinated through the master list maintained by the Salvation Army, Jeffries explained.

Last year, Granite City Student Council provided 50 boxes to local indigent families under a similar scheme.

$17,500 Work-Study Grant for McKendree

Rep. Melvin Price (D) East St. Louis, announced today that McKendree College at Lebanon is slated to receive $17,500 in college work-study program funds from the U. S. Office of Education for the January to June 1969 period.

The work-study program, Congressman Price explained, enables participating institutions to apply federal funds to cover eighty percent of study payrolls. The remaining twenty percent is matched by the university, college or off-campus agency.

Under the work-study program, students may work up to 15 hours weekly while attending class full-time. During the summer or other vacation periods they may work up to 40 hours a week. The basic pay is $1.25, although a student may receive up to $3 for highly specialized work.

Bruce Moore Graduates At San Diego Center

Seaman Apprentice Bruce A. Moore, USN, son of Mrs. Gloria E. Moore of 3121 Davis avenue, has been graduated from nine weeks of Navy basic training at the Naval Training Center in San Diego.

In the first weeks of his naval service he studied military subjects and lived and worked under conditions similar to those he will encounter on his first ship or at his first shore station. In making the transition from civilian life to Naval service, he received instruction under veteran Navy petty officers. He studied seamanship, as well as survival techniques, military drill and other subjects.

'Sneezin' Season' Warning Issued by Safety Council

A word of caution in the "sneezin' season" was issued today by the Quad-City Safety Council, whose officials warn individuals to beware of cold drugs if a person plans to drive.

"Some of the drugs in the narcotic, antihistamine, tranquilizer and barbituate classification have properties to help fight colds and other illnesses, but they also produce side effects ranging from dizziness to interference with concentration, lack of judgement, impaired vision and release of inhibitions against reckless driving," the council reports.

In addition to cold medicines, many people also take pills to counteract the systems of fatigue. These amphetamines or "pep pills," the council cautions, increase alertness and efficiency temporarily, but when their effects wear off, headache, irritability, inability to concentrate, hallucinations or even greater fatigue may result, creating a first-class highway menace.

"The end result," the council said today, "can be seen in the increasing number of reports of drivers under the influence of these drugs passing out at the wheel or driving into stationary objects while in a trance-like state.

"If you do feel ill or overly fatigued, take time to rest, and if necessary, see a doctor. If he prescribes medication, or if you obtain non-prescription drugs from a pharmacist, ask whether they will have any adverse effect on your driving abilities, and govern yourself accordingly.

Farmers Income Tax Filing Date Unchanged

By WARREN W. BUNDY
Madison County Extension Adviser

Income tax filing dates remain the same as last year. The law permits a farmer to either file a completed tax return and pay tax due by Feb. 15, or make an estimate by Jan. 15 and file the completed return and pay tax by April 15. Making an estimate gives farmers more time to accurately prepare tax records.

Keeping complete and accurate tax records is the best way to avoid paying unnecessary taxes and come through an audit with flying colors.

Failing to deduct a legally deductible small item makes the item cost more.

Omissions of income on tax forms can be costly. With more tax records being taped for automatic data processing, more returns may be audited for accuracy. Complete and accurate records will substantiate your tax return. However, if errors are found during an audit, additional tax plus interest may then be assessed on omitted income.

Many farmers are willing to pay for efficient tax help. A tax practitioner not only should fill out tax forms, but should keep you informed of new tax laws and rulings and other ideas for tax planning and savings.

Public Aid Payments in County Increase

Public aid payments in Madison county skyrocketed to $1,119,739 during October, an increase of $362,330 over the $757,409 paid to aid recipients in September, the office of Harold O. Swank, director of the Illinois Department of Public Aid, reported today.

All of the increase, as well as additional funds resulting from reductions in other aid categories, was absorbed in payment of old age assistance to a total of 1361 recipients. October payments for old age assistance totaled $651,368 for the 1361 clients, compared to payments totaling $245,712 to 1381 recipients in September.

Thus October payments amounted to $405,656 more than those of September and were alloted to 20 less clients than received old age assistance in September.

Clients Up Slightly

The total of $1,119,739 paid to recipients in five major categories of public aid during October was distributed among 9664 recipients, while the September payments of $757,409 went to 9463 aid clients.

Aid to Dependent Children payments during October amounted to $315,420 for 5980 persons, compared to September payments of $346,812 for 5924 persons, while October disability assistance totaled $120,798 for 933 clients, compared to September payments of $141,674 for 914 persons.

General assistance allotments in October amounted to $28,571 for 1350 clients, compared to $20,166 paid to 1205 recipients the previous month, the report said.

State Costs Rise

Blind assistance payments for October totaled $3582 for 40 persons. In September the payments totaled $3045 for 39 persons.

At the state level in October the number of persons on general assistance decreased, blind assistance was virtually unchanged and the old age assistance and aid to dependent children programs increased.

Expenditures statewide for October were $46,305,082, compared to $40,576,808 for September and $38,407,535 in October 1967.

The higher expenditures for old age assistance resulted from payments totaling $8,579,271 that reflect an increase in per diem rates for aged mental patients made retroactive to September 1966.

30% after WW II

About 60% of Veterans Now Enroll in Colleges

Participation in the education and training program of the third generation Post-Korean GI Bill has passed the one million mark, the Veterans Administration reports.

From the beginning of the Post-Korean GI Bill on June 1, 1966, through November of this year, 985,805 veterans with service after Jan. 31, 1955, and 68,959 servicemen with at least two consecutive years of active duty had entered training.

Better than 60%—or 639,722—entered institutions of higher learning. This compares with 51% under the Korean Conflict GI Bill and less than 30% under the world war II program.

About 36%—or 378,403—of those in training under the current GI Bill entered below college level. Included in this total are 25,334 who have taken flight training.

On-the-job training has attracted 36,639 veterans since October 1967, when this type of training was first authorized.

Currently, 507,658 veterans and 34,217 servicemen are enrolled in the Post-Korean GI Bill education and training program. Almost 335,000—or 62%—are taking college-level training.

Of the more than 176,000 enrolled in below-college level courses, nearly 20,000 were taking flight training as of the end of November.

On-the-job training enrollment at the end of last month totaled nearly 31,000.

Under a new law that went into effect on Dec. 1, veterans with at least 18 months of service after Jan. 31, 1955, are entitled to the maximum of 36 months of VA educational assistance. Those with less than 18 months service are entitled to one-and-one-half months of assistance for each month of service.

Veterans now in training will be credited automatically by VA with whatever additional entitlement under this new law may be due them. They need not apply for a new certificate.

Veterans who dropped out of training or who exhausted their previous entitlement but now have additional entitlement because of the new law are being notified of the specific, individual additional educational assistance from VA for which they are eligible. However, they must apply to their nearest VA regional office for a new certificate of eligibility if they wish to re-enter training under the Post-Korean GI Bill.

Training under this program must be completed within eight years after separation from service, or before June 1, 1974, whichever is later.

Veterans are urged to contact their area VA office for additional information.

Linguistics Workshop Planned for Teachers

A Linguistics workshop for teachers of kindergarten through eighth grades classes will be held starting Tuesday, Jan. 7, at Edwardsville, it was announced today by Wilbur R. T. Trimpe, county school superintendent.

The workshop will meet from 7 to 9 p.m. in the audio-visual room of the Edwardsville junior high school with Roy Hollmann as instructor.

"Linguistics," Trimpe said, "can be defined as the scientific study of the nature and function on human languages, and the linguist uses the methodology and objectivity of a scientist in his investigation and analysis on linguistic phenomena.

"The application of linguistic science to the teaching of language arts has the potentiality of restructing the English, reading, spelling and language arts curriculum in our elementary schools with a speed and thoroughness that is analogous to the upheaval we have recently witnessed as modern mathematics drastically revised our elementary arithmetic curriculum.

"As in the modern mathematics revolution, it is essential for teachers to develop fresh views in both the affective domain and the cognitive domain. New attitudes, as well as new knowledge, are needed to make the transition effective."

The class will meet for a two-hour session each week for eight weeks. No college credit is allowed, but a certificate will be awarded to those who complete the course.

Two Madison Brothers Like 'Yule Mail Call'

Two Madison brothers, stationed overseas, whose names and addresses appeared in the Press-Record's "Yule Mail Call" listings, have asked their mother to relay their appreciation to Granite City Mayor Donald Partney and other residents of the community who sent the pair Christmas greetings and letters during the holiday season.

Mrs. Opal Voss of Madison said that both her sons had written home expressing their thanks for "all the cards and letters sent by the good people of Granite City."

The servicemen are Lucian L. Voss, who is stationed aboard the aircraft carrier USS Constellation, off the coast of Vietnam, and Army Specialist Five Melvin L. Voss, assigned to the 568th Engineers in Germany.

Census Bureau to Conduct Survey on Major Buying

Families and households in this area will be included in a nationwide survey of home repair and buying plans this month, according to Theodore F. Olson, director of the Census Bureau's regional office in Chicago.

Census Bureau interviewers will ask householders about any plans to buy a house, a car, or major household appliances during the next year. Questions about home repairs and alterations will concern those made during the past three months and those planned to be made in the near future.

The Census Bureau conducts a survey of buying expectations and home repairs every three months to serve as a guide to economic growth. A mathematically selected group of households throughout the nation serves as a measure of what U. S. families own and what they expect to buy in the near future.

For example, a similar survey taken last July indicated that about 62% of all households owned their home, 27% owned two or more cars, and about 24% owned color TV. Ownership, however, varied according to family income: For households with incomes under $3000, 50% owned their home, 6% owned color TV and 4% owned more than one car. For households with incomes ranging from $3000 to $10,000, 60% owned their home, 23% owned color TV and 25% owned more than one car. For households making more than $10,000, 80% owned their home, 42% owned color TV and 54% owned more than one car.

Households included in the survey will not be identified. Their answers are confidential, and the information obtained will be used only for statistical purposes.

School of Mission Will Start Sunday

The annual School of Missions will be held at Niedringhaus United Methodist Church on the Sunday nights this month. The study program, designed for all ages, will begin on Sunday at 6 p.m. to provide fellowship, study and inspiration.

Each evening's program will include the fellowship supper at 6 followed by the study hour at 7 o'clock. Following the class period, all participants will reassemble in Wesley Hall for a missions film.

This year's study will be on the general theme, "Southeast Asia." The faculty will include the following: Adults, Rev. R. Paul Sims; Senior High Youth, Gerald Bushue sr.; Junior High Youth, Rev. Dean Blackburn; Fourth, Ffith and Sixth Grades, Mrs. R. Paul Sims; first, second and third grades, Mrs. Harold E. Briggs; Kindergarten, Mrs. G. E. Ferguson. Child care for each evening will be provided; the infants will be in charge of Mrs. John Davis, while the toddlers will be under the care of Mr. and Mrs. George Lipe.

The entire school is planned and directed by the Commission on Missions and Social Concerns. Mrs. Wesley Helms and Richard West are co-chairmen of the sponsoring Commission.

Annoùnce Birth

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Judd of Athens, Ga., formerly of Granite City, are announcing the birth of their second daughter, Francene Marie, at St. Mary's Hospital in Athens. The infant weighed eight pounds, six ounces. The grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Gasparovic jr. and Mr. and Mrs. Franciss Judd of Granite City.

I can hardly wait myself . . . I'll be pumping the produce buyers, Joe Barbieri and Reggie Mennerick each week to find out what's the best and worst buys on the market and Claude Miller our vice-pres. in charge of Meat Operations (how's that for a title) promised that he would pass on any hints on what are the best bargains in his Meat cases . . . Dick Roderick, Roger Storm and Ron Aldridge our grocery buyers have also been put on the alert to tell me about anything that is going on with the packers (not the football team although we do talk about them from time to time. . Social Security Official Provides the Answers

Answers to questions asked by persons concerning Social Security benefits are being given by Ralph Brasher, district manager of the Social Security office, East St. Louis, in a series of articles being supplied to the Press-Record.

Any Quad-Cityan with questions may write to Brasher at 650 Missouri avenue, Room 104, East St. Louis, Ill. 62201, or call him at BRidge 4-2200, Extension 329.

Questions with answers follow:

Q. My wife died four years ago and left me with two small children. I received only a lump sum payment when she died. The person who took care of my claim explained that since my wife did not work a year and a half in the 3 years before she died I could not get benefits for the children. My wife worked under social security for over 10 years and stopped when our first child was born. Is there some change in the social security law whereby I can now receive payments for the children?

A. Yes, definitely, you can now receive benefits for the children. Since you received a lump sum death payment, she had worked long enough to be fully insured. You stated you were advised that no benefits could be paid for the children because your wife did not work in the period just prior to her death. The recent work requirement need no longer be met to pay benefits for children when a mother dies. You should take your children's birth certificates and visit the nearest social security office to file a claim for the children. Benefits are payable beginning with the month of February 1968.

Q. Does a person covered by Medicare have to pay the first $50 of medical costs each year or do you just pay it once?

A. The first $50 of medical expenses is paid by the patient each year, however, in counting the $50 in a year he can sometimes carry over medical expenses incurred in the last quarter of the year to the following year.

Dow Contract Talks Continue

Union representatives and officials of Dow Chemical Co. continued contract talks today in an effort to settle a four-month strike of 700 steelworkers of the company's Madison plant.

Negotiators of both sides resumed their contract talks at 9 a.m. today in the offices of the U.S. Mediation and Conciliation Service in St. Louis following lengthy meetings Monday and again on Tuesday.

The 700 striking steelworkers, members of local 4804 of United Steelworkers of America, walked off their jobs Aug. 31 in a contract dispute over seniority and job security provisions. Representatives of both the union and the company have been meeting in almost daily sessions for the past two weeks.

Robert E. Stroehmer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Stroehmer, 2248 Washington avenue, has been promoted to Army specialist five in Korea, where he is serving with the 516th Light Equipment Maintenance Company.

Plan Vote on Johns-Manville Stock Split

The Johns - Manville Corp. quarterly dividend on common stock will increase from 55 to 60 cents a share effective with the dividend payable March 10 to shareholders of record Feb. 28. Stockholders at their annual meeting March 13 in Toledo, O., will consider authorizing a two-for-one common stock split.

President C. B. Burnett said adoption of a straight-line depreciation method, together with favorable fourth-quarter results, increased 1968 earnings about 60 cents a share. J-M and many other firms had changed to accelerated depreciation charges in 1962 in keeping with U. S. Treasury rules, and the result was a reduction of reported earnings. The new plan conforms to present accounting practices of a majority of corporations.

Preliminary discussions of a possible merger of Johns-Manville with U. S. Plywood-Champion Papers, Inc., have been terminated.

Two File Petitions in Aldermanic Election

Two additional filings in the 1969 Granite City aldermanic election were reported today by City Clerk Homer Pendleton.

Nominating petitions were filed with Pendleton's office by Paul Schuler, 3237 Newell drive, as a candidate for alderman of the Sixth Ward, and by Henry Kovalik, 47 Villa drive, also as a candidate for alderman of the Sixth Ward.

Schuler now is a member of the Granite City Park district whose term expires next year. He has announced he will not seek re-election to the park board.

The filing period for candidates for mayor in the 1969 city election in Granite City ends next Tuesday. Only one candidate has filed thus far. Filing deadline for candidates to all other city offices is Jan. 27.

The bride and groom are both teachers at the Franklin Center high school in Franklin Grove, Ill. They will make their home in Dixon, Ill. The former Miss Gagnon is a McKendree College graduate. Mr. Barron was graduated from Millikin University in Decatur.

EAGLES WELCOME NEW YEAR AT PARTY

Approximately 120 Eagles members and friends attended a New Year's eve party Tuesday night at the Eagles hall.

The evening was spent dancing to the Tune Twisters band. The room was decorated with suspended streamers and multi-colored balloons.

The center of the dance floor ceiling had a large array of balloons held by blue crepe paper. As the midnight hour approached, noisemakers rang in the new year and the balloons floated from the ceiling.

Prizes were awarded, followed by a buffet dinner served at 1:30 a.m.

$600,000 City Sales Tax Total Possible for 1968

Municipal sales tax revenue for the first nine months of 1968 is up 48%, exceeding a 35% increase in the rate, Illinois Department of Revenue figures showed this week.

The tax of three-fourths-cent per sales dollar was effective throughout 1968 and in two of the first nine months of 1967. The change from a half-cent-a-dollar tax took place July 31, 1967.

Quad-City area city sales taxes have amounted to $444,894 in 1968 in the returns tabulated so far.

Included are: January $41,653, February $42,792, March $51,394 April $48,354, May $51,722, June $56,945, July $48,055, August $50,058 and September $53,917. The March, June and September totals reflect some quarterly reports as well as monthly receipts.

Comparative Figures

In 1967, the tallies were: January $27,247, February $27,779, March $34,215, April $29,277, May $31,545, June $35,433, July $27,750, August $38,985, September $46,732, October $42,017, November $42,151 and December $64,146.

A 1968 city sales tax total here of close to $600,000 appears possible. Previous yearly record was $447,281, set in 1967.

Due to higher sales and to the rate increase, the nine-month 1968 statistics approximate the 12-month 1967 figures.

$366,461 GC Receipts

Granite City has earned $366,461, compared to $370,448 in all of 1967; Madison, $59,887, compared to $58,885; Venice, $12,326, compared to $14,212; and Pontoon Beach, $6218, compared to $3735.

Breakdowns my months, January through September 1968, follows:

Granite City—$34,176, $34,287, $42,244, $40,012, $42,668, $46,991, $39,400, $41,349 and $45,330.

Madison — $5688, $6441, $7074, $6317, $6925, $7758, $6372, $6738 and $6572.

Venice — $1250, $1154, $1436, $1358, $1435, $1460, $1556, $1271 and $1401.

Pontoon Beach — $537, $909, $639, $665, $693, $734, $726, $699 and $613.

Establish Good In-Law-Relationship

If the title mother-in-law is one you recently acquired, you will find the new role most rewarding if you learn a few of the ground rules.

Lucile Pepoon, University of Illinois Extension family life specialist, offers these suggestions for happier in-law relationships:

—Since interference can be a critical problem, maintain a balance in your dealings with the new couple. Don't assume such a "hands off!" policy that you seem not to care, nor be so interfering that you cause trouble. Both generations must be able to compromise.

—Young people have a right to make their own decisions and mistakes. "For their own good" is not a reason for trying to control their lives.

—"If I were you" is a phrase that can cause trouble. Talking over alternate solutions to a problem is desirable, but be sure to express your opinions without deep emotions.

—Go easy on suggestions. Don't say, "This is how I do it." Sometimes unasked directions sound like criticism.

—Accept the new in-law and new couple as they are. Don't try to re-do them. And remember that their first loyalty is to each other, so don't force a choice.

—Discretion pays off. Nobody likes to have his family business reported to someone else or compared to another.

—Remember that the relationship with an in-law will never be quite like that with your own child. In time of crisis, each will turn to his own people.

—Don't compete with the other mother-in-law, especially over grandchildren.

Extension Cord Safety

Inadequate extension cords cause many fires.

O. L. Hogsett, University of Illinois Extension safety specialist, explains that short circuits result when thin insulation wears off and allows the two wires within to touch. When this happens, the low-resistance wires don't blow the fuse until they get as hot as the heating element in your toaster. In the meantime, the smoldering fire could set your draperies on fire. To combat this fire hazard, use an extension cord only out of necessity and select it carefully.

When you shop for an extension cord, select one designed for heavy-duty use. The thicker rubber insulation protects the wires and gives longer service than will regular extension cords.

Limit the cord's length, Hogsett points out than long cords contribute to voltage drop and power loss. Also check the cord for the Underwriter's Laboratories Inc., seal of approval. This seal is your proof that the product has passed extension tests and is safe to use if used properly.

And the proper way to start is with one extension cord for one appliance. Putting more than one appliance on an outlet can overload the circuit.

And there are certain places extension cords should never be used — across traffic lanes, through doorways and under rugs. Even the heavy-duty cords will crack with constant crushing and bending. It's also dangerous to drape them over nails and sharp objects during use and storage.

If you must use an extension cord, examine it periodically for signs of cracking and wear. When you find signs of wear, throw the cord away. Don't chance a fire with a defective cord.

Withholding Plan Preferred Way Of Administering An Income Tax

(Taxpayers' Federation of Illinois)

If Illinois were to adopt a state income tax, it would seem advisable to include a withholding provision.

Withholding provisions greatly simplify the administrative problems of an income tax and diminish the possibility of tax evasion.

The latter point is particularly important in considering the problem of transients. Since the tax is withheld as the income is earned, there is no loss of tax revenue if an individual moves out of the state in the middle of the year.

From the taxpayer's point of view, withholding is a favorable procedure. In this way, the taxpayer is not faced with one large bill at the end of the year. Rather, the tax bill is spread evenly over the entire year.

This permits the individual taxpayer to budget his income more evenly throughout the year.

The main argument against withholding is that it creates extra administrative work for the employer.

However, since the employer is already responsible for withholding the federal income tax, the additional costs of withholding a state income tax would be minimal. This would be particularly true if the state income tax were applied to the federal income tax base.

It appears that the advantages of withholding outweigh the disadvantages.

Consequently, if a state income tax were adopted, withholding would seem to be the most efficient means of collecting the tax revenue.

Shift in Defense of Religious Faith

"Reconceptions in Christian Thinking, 1817-1967" by W. Norman Pittenger. New York, the Seabury Press, 1968. $4.50.

Reviewed by Edward L. Hoffman, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Carbondale, Ill.

(Review published in the Daily Egyptian, SIU Department of Journalism, Carbondale.)

In "Reconceptions in Christian Thinking 1817-1967," W. Norman Pittenger indicates how the church and particularly the Anglican Church has shifted its ground in a defense and declaration of the Christian faith in the above designated years.

He sees the Darwinian revolution as an opportunity to trace the divine in the long torturous process of creation.

Indeed, the creative God thus described is the living God in a sense in which the earlier diety of the church could never have lived.

Examinations of the new physics, the depth psychologists and secularism are made to indicate how this Faith changes its rationale in a changing world.

In a treatment of reason and revelation, Pittenger sees the Anglican Church because of its particular history in a position to speak to Continental theologians such as Barth and Brunner on one hand and the Roman Catholic position on the other.

He sees traditional Catholicism as over-sold on how easy it is to reason your way to a Christian position. In other words, it has not seen clearly enough the antinomies of reason (how reason contradicts itself).

This is true when reason tries to explain the world from the point of view of the Faith.

It is even more the case when reason tries to explain the world from a naturalistic point of view.

Having seen this, Pittenger is not satisfied with the older Barthian viewpoint that Faith has no use for reason.

Pittenger thinks that the Anglican position of reason as the handmaiden of Faith is the best ground on which to stand.

In this instance, the handmaiden can wait on Faith only in a more limited fashion than that described by Thomas Aquinas in the Catholic position.

Thus he sees Anglicanism as the bridge between Catholicism and Protestantism. This is nothing new. It has often been thus described.

But Pittenger convincingly points out that the bridge is naturally and solidly there. It was built by history. Thus it can be lived on.

This is a brief, readable book and appeals to the laity.

It seems unfortunate that it is so contracted as to partially preclude the author's substantiation of his position.

When one moves from the world in which we enter into an intellectual elucidation of faith (when we move from theology) to Christian action, it is of interest to see what has happened to the bridge.

Recently there have been strong bids on the part of some Anglicans and Methodists in England to unite the two churches there.

Then last summer the Archbishop of Canterbury, among others, at least temporarily, blocked the move.

Many watch with interest what the Episcopal Church (Anglicanism in this country) will do in the present deliberations on union, in which it and several other Protestant churches are engaged.

It may be stretching both the analogy, and that concerning which the analogy speaks, to observe that a bridge is most useful if it permits passage over it.

Other ways will be found across the distance which separates many Protestant churches from Catholicism.

It will be most unfortunate, however, if the bridge goes unused or if it does not act as a natural link. If it does, it will be true to its history.

Nevertheless, this book reminds one of the conversation between Bishop Dwight Loder and a university student.

She has raised a number of objections to the Christian faith which he had, to her satisfaction, answered.

"Why," said she, "You ought to write a book!" His quick answer was, "And you ought to read one."

This volume may not be the one, but it is one among several which merits reading.

Suggestion to U. S. Parks: Admit Bears Are Dangerous for People

(American Institute of Biological Sciences)

Recurring deaths and injury from bears in our national parks dramatize the need for re-evaluation of some of the policies of the National Park Service says Gairdner B. Moment, Professor of Biological Sciences at Goucher College in Baltimore, Md.

Injuries from black bears occur almost daily in Great Smokey Mountain National Park and in Yellowstone National Park.

Some of the injuries sustained have been of a particularly horrible nature. Within the past few years, the U.S. government has paid out $100,000 in damages on two separate occasions because of grizzly bear injuries.

The author explodes some of the myths which are responsible for the bear now enjoying a privilged position in American folklore.

Smokey the Bear and Gentle Ben, although depicted as friendly, harmless playmates, actually belong to a group of carnivours which are often badtempered, weigh up to 800 pounds, and can be outrun by only a horse or an antelope.

And then remember Goldilocks cast in the role of a juvenile delinquent, and the three bears as injured innocents!

Detailed instructions on bear management responsibilities issued to Park personnel are generally unenforceable. According to the Park Service, its purpose is "to preserve and maintain natural populations of bears while providing for the safety of Park visitors."

Dr. Moment says that it is the double nature of this assignment which, to a very large extent, creates the problem.

It is an acknowledged oversimplification to suggest that the National Park Service should decide whether parks are for people or for bears.

Nevertheless, Dr. Moment advocates that certain parks, such as Yellowstone and Glacier, be primarily devoted to people for hiking and similar activities, but above all just to enjoy—and that other suitable habitat be found for bears.

Thousands of acres in the Northwest have been set aside for the benefit of waterfowl. If it is important to conserve bears, similar action could be taken to set up sanctuaries for them.

As the author points out, Old Faithful is unique to Yellowstone National Park; bears are not.

Nothing Unusual About a City Hiring a Non-Resident Attorney

In theory, it would be nice if all municipal payrollers resided within city boundaries. But this is not always possible, as Illinois statutes recognize in specifically exempting attorneys, engineers, health officers and others required to have extensive technical training or knowledge. Perusal of the city code of Granite City also shows no ban on such appointments.

This being the case, there appears to be no valid legal objection to the appointment of Leon G. Scroggins, former Madison county state's attorney, as city attorney of Granite City. In fact, Madison and Venice also have non-resident attorneys. Collinsville, Glen Carbon, Maryville, Troy and Pontoon Beach have found themselves in similar situations.

Sentiment for the job to go to a local resident, if a competent resident is willing, is both understandable and logical. However, as was pointed out last week, the workload is heavy and the pay is relatively low; neither circumstance is conducive to attracting a flood of applicants.

While Alderman Nonn appears on the surface to be on sound ground in his opposition to the appointment, we seem to recall that he has frequently supported bringing engineers in from out-of-town to perform various services for the city.

The city ordinance he refers to had the primary intent of limiting hiring of such employees as police and firemen; if it is going to be stretched to apply to technical personnel as well, it is hard to see how it could be used against an attorney without also adhering to it in the case of engineers.

Mr. Scroggins resides, not in some distant community, but on Roney drive, well within the Granite City school district and not far from the city line. Perhaps he, like many other unincorporated area residents, would like to see the municipal boundary extended outward.

If council decisions, and the manner in which they are reached, were more consistent and orderly, rural areas might be more receptive to annexation. Mr. Nonn, as one of the leading performers in the Monday night city hall dramas, may wish to give thought to this point in his quest for inside-the-boundary appointees.

Further Recognition of Effective Service to Mankind By C. P. Whitehead

Designation of Charles Powell Whitehead as St. Louis "man of the year" for 1968 takes formal note of the extensive service and leadership he has given over a period of many years. He previously received similar honors in the Quad-Cities, and his multitudinous and effective endeavors were well known throughout the Illinois-Missouri metropolitan area.

Diversification has been a keynote of Mr. Whitehead's career in business and public life.

As head of the General Steel firm and Commonwealth steel castings plant here, he expanded the holdings and added many products at a time when the basic line, sales to the railroad industry, was declining. And despite his sales and managerial experience with tangible goods, he also found time, and proved to be expert, in raising funds for such intangibles as music, art, health, welfare, human relations, education and character-building.

It is not news that C. P. Whitehead is a man of special ability with special interest in helping others. But the new honor adds further dimension and luster to his distinguished record and we are happy to be able to report and comment on it.

Use New and Existing Staffs To Keep Community Attractive

Creation of a Board of Beautification places a helpful spotlight on the need for a neat, attractive community. The six-member Granite City group will work with the University of Illinois staff to develop a program that can be financed with federal taxes.

In addition to this step, municipal authorities will need to make full use of existing authority and manpower to curb unsightly conditions. An alert, positive governmental attitude can go a long way toward convincing property owners that they must meet reasonable esthetic standards.

Environment has tremendous influence on the image people have of themselves and their community. Effort is required to achieve a favorable environment, but the rewards are great.

High Court Clerk Position for Simmons

Appointment of Walter T. "Buck" Simmons of Venice to a vacancy as clerk of the Fifth Appellate District of Illinois, decided by Democratic appellate judges and a Democratic governor, probably stems primarily from his long service to the party, including his present position of Madison county Democratic central committee chairman.

However, they undoubtedly also feel that he is capable of handling the important duties of the office, which serves a 37-county area. His previous government service has included Venice bridge and state highway patronage posts as well as a term as a Tri-City Regional Port District commissioner.

Quad-Cityans wish him well in his new work and undoubtedly will respect his request that they not vote for him in the special Illinois senate primary election March 11.

Deep Interest in This Area By All Levels of the Army Depot Staff

In its history of more than 26 years, the Granite City Army Depot and this community have been served by 15 fine commanding officers, an outstanding example being the current commandant, Col. Charles E. Hoskin III.

What also is impressive about the local Army base is that active concern for this region is shared by the remainder of the military and civilian staff as well. The citizenship of Depot personnel at all levels has been of a high order, and this fact is brought to mind by the impending departure and retirement of the deputy commandant, Lt. Col. David V. Fox.

His varied civic service, including leadership of Boy Scout camp planning and improvements, has made a major impact here during the past two years. Among other duties, Col. Fox served as general chairman of the successful scout fair held at the Wilson Park ice rink in October. His ability, energy, friendship and interest will be missed.

Zoning, Subdivision Hearings to Follow Adoption of Master Plan

(Granite City Plan Commission)

In carrying out its activities during the past year, the Plan Commission worked closely with Mayor Donald Partney, Alderman Richard Fry, chairman of the Aldermanic Planning Committee, and Alderman Walter Nonn, chairman of the Aldermanic Streets and Alleys Committee.

The Southwestern Illinois Metropolitan Planning Commission provided our local Plan Commission with a needed day-to-day technical service. And, under contract with the city of Granite City, it prepared drafts of a "Master Plan" for the city, updated zoning maps, and proposed new "zoning" and "land subdivision" ordinances.

In considering the planning and zoning needs of the community, the Granite City Plan Commission works in three ways:

First, through its chairman, who discusses each petition for action with all interested parties in an attempt to resolve any minor objections.

Secondly, through the zoning subcommittee and the individual subject area committee chairman.

And, thirdly, through the action of the full Commission, meeting in public hearing.

Despite numerous requests to solve current land use problems under existing ordinances, the principal work of the Plan Commission during 1968 was the completion of the updating of the planning and zoning maps, the adoption of a new "Master Plan" for the city's future growth, and the development of new "zoning" and "land subdivision" ordinances.

On the evening of Oct. 16, 1968, the Plan Commission held a public hearing in the city council chambers on a "Long-Range Comprehensive Plan for the City of Granite City, Illinois," which had been prepared by the Southwestern Illinois Metropolitan Area Planning Commission.

This document serves as the "Master Plan" for the city and suggests the development of the city for the next 20 years for all fields of municipal government, schools, parks and public housing.

Prior to the public hearing, the plan had been approved formally by Granite City School District No. 9, the Granite City Housing Authority and the Granite City Park District.

After thoroughly reviewing the Plan, the Granite City Plan Commission unanimously recommended its approval to the City Council.

The City Council has adopted a resolution calling for an ordinance to adopt the "Long-Range Comprehensive Plan" as the city's master plan.

Such an ordinance has been prepared and was placed on first reading during the City Council meeting of Dec. 23.

It is imperative that the City Council approve the "Master Plan" in early January 1969 in order that the Plan Commission might get about the business of holding public hearings on the proposed new "zoning" and "land subdivision" ordinances.

Also, the city's "workable program" for community improvements, filed with the U. S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, will have its certification expire Feb. 1, 1969.

One of the requirements stipulated in the workable plan is that there be comprehensive community planning.

To obtain continued certification, necessary for financial assistance to the municipality, Granite City will be required to submit a public improvements program, with all revised plan elements shown.

This is to include a detailed statement of work goals for the next year.

The principal work of the Plan Commission during 1969 will be the final adoption of the new "zoning" and "land subdivision" ordinances and concentrated effort on such specific projects as renewal for the downtown area, increasing traffic flow through the development of new connecting and intra-city arteries, and economic development through aiding commercial investment, industrial expansion and the establishment of a second major airport for the St. Louis metropolitan area on the east side.

Without question, the process of planning and guiding the uses of land for maximum development will be more important in 1969 and the coming years than at any time in the past.

The East-West Gateway Coordinating Council has estimated that Madison county will be the largest county in southern Illinois by the year 1990.

Because of the accessibility of Madison county to the Greater St. Louis metropolitan area by Interstate Highways 70 and 270, it is projected that Madison county's 1965 population of 248,400 will grow to 276,800 by 1970, to 308,900 by 1975, to 344,800 by 1980, to 383,200 by 1985 and 422,300 by 1990, nearly double the county's 1960 population.

If such population projections become a reality, problems in planning and land use in Granite City will require not only a "master plan" but modern, up-to-date ordinances which can maintain proper "zoning" and "land subdivisions."

The "Long-Range Development Plan for the City of Granite City, Illinois" prepared by the Southwestern Illinois Metropolitan Area Planning Commission projects Granite City's development to the year 1985 and should be the cornerstone for planning purposes by our municipal government, Community Unit School District No. 9, Granite City Park District and the Granite City Housing Authority.

The interest of all of our citizens in making planning work in Granite City is earnestly solicited.

The organization of the Commission during 1968 was as follows:

General Chairman — William F. Hoelscher.

Vice-Chairman and Chairman of the Zoning Committee—E. G. Schmitt.

Chairman, Professionals' Coordinating Committee — Henry Lueders.

Chairman, State & Federal Programs—Dave Morgan.

Chairman, Building Construction Review Committee—Henry Gabriel.

Chairman, Traffic & Parking —James Holland.

Chairman, Commercial & Industrial Development — Homer Huber.

Chairman, Residential Development—Boyd Presley.

Surtax Is Explained On the New Federal Income Tax Instructions

(Internal Revenue Service)

Q. Do the new tax forms explain how to figure the surtax?

A. Yes, the tax surcharge is explained in both the 1040 and 1040A instructions.

Q. I had my 65th birthday in 1968. Will that make any difference when I file my tax return?

A. Yes, there are various benefits the law provides for taxpayers 65 years of age and over. These are explained in our Publication 554, "Tax Benefits for Older Americans."

For one thing, taxpayers 65 and over are allowed an extra exemption because of age.

If you are presently employed and have taxes withheld from your wages, you may want to file a new withholding statement, Form W-4, with your employer to claim this extra exemption. Doing so will reduce the amount your employer withholds.

Your employer should be able to provide you with a copy of the Form W-4.

Q. I went into business for myself in 1968 and have several employees. Is there any deadline for me to issue their withholding statements? One of my people already asked about it.

A. The law requires employers to issue withholding statements by Jan. 31. Many employers try to issue them as soon as possible after Jan. 1 so their employees may file tax returns early.

Q. I sold some stock at loss last month. Can I take a deduction for this on my federal tax return?

A. Yes, losses on the sale or exchange of stock can be deducted for income tax purposes when they exceed capital gains.

The loss, whether short or long-term, must first be used to offset any capital gain you had during the year.

Any excess loss can be deducted to the extent of taxable income computed without regard to exemptions or capital gains and losses, but no more than $1000.

Capital losses in excess of the amount you are allowed to deduct can be carried over to future tax years. Use schedule D of Form 1040 to compute capital gains and losses.

Q. Will farmers be entitled to a refund on gas tax again this year?

A. Yes, farmers are entitled to a credit for federal tax paid on gasoline used on the farm for farming purposes. This credit should be entered on line 19 of the Form 1040.

Farmers claiming this tax credit should complete Form 4136, Computation of Credit for Federal Tax on Gas and Lubricating Oil, and attach it to their return.

TIME FOR SCHOOLS TO ADOPT NEWER METHODS

To the Editor:

A short time ago the voters in our town approved another increase in taxes. We are told that our school system needs more money, even though our local newspaper pointed out that our school system is overextended financially.

It appears that the only way we have tried to keep up with increased enrollments is more money, more building and more teachers.

This method of keeping up is perhaps the easy way out, but it is certainly the antiquated way.

The modern way of solving problems is by methods—not just more of everything.

Not too many years ago, the railroad thought the only way to handle more business was by having more tracks, more locomotives and cars.

Now they have less tracks, locomotives and cars and do a better job; this has been accomplished by improved methods.

We, the taxpayers, need an organization to critically evaluate our present methods and explore ways of doing things differently.

We may find that we have more school buildings and teachers than we actually need.

For instance, we know that school-age people learn rapidly from TV programs; one teacher and a TV system can teach an unlimited number of students.

We also have the possibility of utilizing our present plant on a year-round basis, which has been frequently suggested in our local newspaper.

Perhaps the more imaginative reforms must originate outside education itself.

The fields of business and science seem to be "where the action is" due to the motivation being much stronger than in a school system.

Perhaps they are fertile fields whose ideas, and methods we should appropriate to make the raw material into a first-class finished product at the lowest possible cost.

Of course, one realizes that a finished product does not exist in terms of education, as education is a continuous process.

On a visit to the Edwardsville campus of SIU, one sees 40-50- and even 60-year-olds pursuing education.

The possibilities for dramatic and refreshing changes in our way of doing things are unlimited.

If they are not brought about by steady hands and mature minds in an orderly manner, they will be forced upon us by eager hands and young minds in a way they deem expedient.

For any group, or individual, to suggest a "yes" vote on a tax increase is the easy way out.

All one has to do is put an "x" in the proper place.

However, to become involved in searching for a new, and better way is not so easy, is it?

COMMENDS STORES THAT STAYED CLOSED SUNDAYS

To the Editor:

I believe that a word of commendation is due to the Umberhine Furniture Company and the other retail establishments in the Granite City area which refused to comply with the demands of a secularized society and desecrate the Lord's Day through Sunday selling during Christmas season.

Too often, the church has been extremely vocal in its criticism of those social wrongs which are present in its community, and at the same time lax in its recognition of those who are endeavoring to uphold the standards which have made our nation great. One of those standards is the freedom of worship.

Many retailers in our city have denied their employees the opportunity of worship by demanding that they provide the salespower for the Sunday Only Specials, the newest in a series of gimmicks to add a seventh day to the selling schedule.

Those stores that have remained closed on the Lord's Day have, through their actions, shown that God is NOT dead in the business world.

It would be well for Christians to show their appreciation for this action by their patronage of these establishments.

The people of our churches have heard their pastors preach against buying and selling on Sunday until these messages have been accepted as a necessary evil to be endured.

It is refreshing, and perhaps effective, to hear a leader of the business arena state that Sunday belongs to the Lord and unnecessary selling is not in the best interest of our community. Let us heed the admonition.

minority employment practices in Madison and St. Clair county.

Waiting Green Light

Robert Kronst, district engineer for District 8 headquartered at French Village, said "We can't do anything until the federal government gives us the green light to go ahead." He said that a survey that has been underway since last May shows from 16 to 21% of the work force on projects in Madison and St. Clair county has been made up of members of minority groups, mostly Negro.

While two major Interstate projects are listed in the new highway building program for Madison county, neither are in the Quad-City area. These include construction of ramps, frontage roads and shoulders on Interstate 70 from US 40 to Interstate 270 at a cost of $1,027,000, and for roadside safety features, rest areas and landscaping along Interstate 70 from Illinois Route 159 to the Bond-Fayette county line at a cost of $2,237,000.

For Alton Area

The two largest projects among non-Interstate work are both in the Alton-Wood River area. These include $2,390,000 for four lanes of pavement and a bridge on Illinois 140 from Powder Mill road to Illinois 111 west of Bethalto, and $1,140,000 for grading on Federal Aid Route 155 from Henry street in Alton to Illinois 3 in Wood River.

The overall Illinois highway building program sets up a total of $348,400,000, with $212,400,000 earmarked for Interstate construction. Of the total, the state will provide $99 millions, local sources will provide $18.5 millions and the federal government will provide $230,900,000.

Autos Collide

Involved in a collision Tuesday afternoon at Niedringhaus avenue and Iowa street were autos driven by Margaret Fitch of Glen Carbon, who was going north and making a left turn, and William Evans, 2604 Cayuga street, who was traveling west.

Vandals Damage Auto

Ruth Holman, 1933 Pontoon road, reported to police Wednesday morning that vandals had smashed windows on the right side of her 1966 auto.

PRE-TEEN CLUB DANCE

Mrs. Edith Evans, leader and advisor for the Pre-Teens club, has announced that the group will begin its new year Friday from 7 to 10 p.m. with a dance and games at the Kirkpatrick hall. Music will be provided by the "Other Half."

Due to ill health, Mrs. Evans had resigned at the last meeting, but she has decided to continue with new rules and age restrictions. Age level for the group will be 10-14.

Mrs. Evans expressed regret for strict age enforcement plans, but said the club cannot function with overflow crowds of different age levels. She said other age groups may contact the Kirkpatrick Teen Age club or the Early Birds, which both meet on Tuesdays.

The pre-teens were organized in May 1968 by Mrs. Evans, who is assisted by chaperones, Peter Waiser, a junior at GCHS and a representative of the Youth Corps, and Mrs. Bonita Gibbs and Mrs. Dorene Harper.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ellsworth jr., 2549 Hodges avenue, entertained friends and relatives Monday evening at a party in honor of the first birthday of their son, Evan. The Ellsworths also have a son, Ethan, who will be two in several weeks.

An unusual birthday motif was chosen for the table appointments, using December's birthstone color, turquoise, and flower, daffodils.

A large cake decorated in turquoise adorned with daffodils and figurines, emphasizing a baseball theme, served as the centerpiece. The honoree received many gifts.

A dessert luncheon was served by the hostess to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ellsworth sr., paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Murphy, maternal grandparents, aunts and uncles, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hahn and daughter, Christine, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Deckard and children, Gina and Timmy, Frankie Murphy jr., Misses Barbara Hahn, Waive Ellsworth, Kathy Goodin and Diane Robertson and the honoree's brother, Ethan.
